

New form

Questions The answers

15 answers

Accept answers

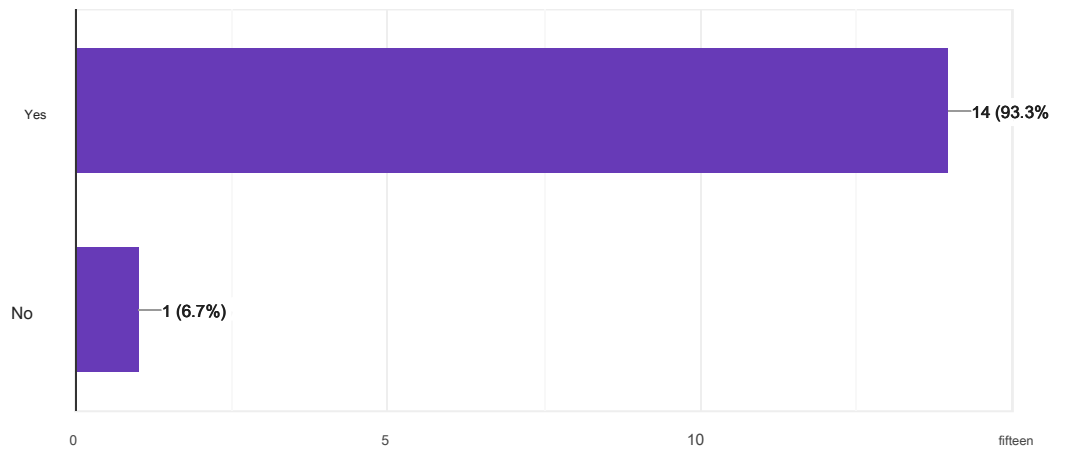

Summary

Question

Single user

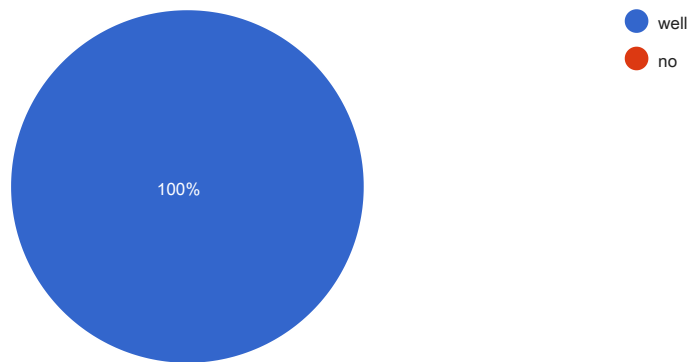

Has the development of information technology and social networks changed the work your organization is doing?

15 answers

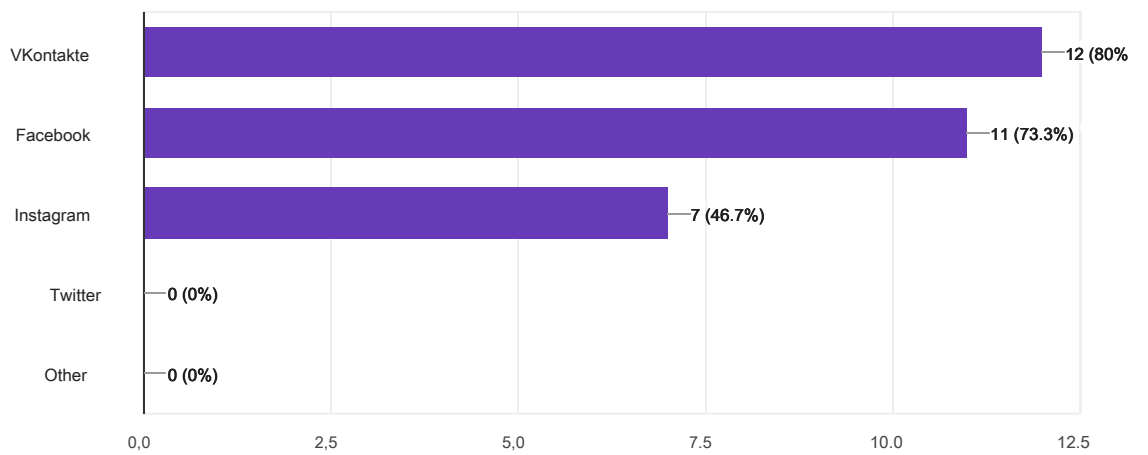

Do you often use social networks in your daily work?

15 answers

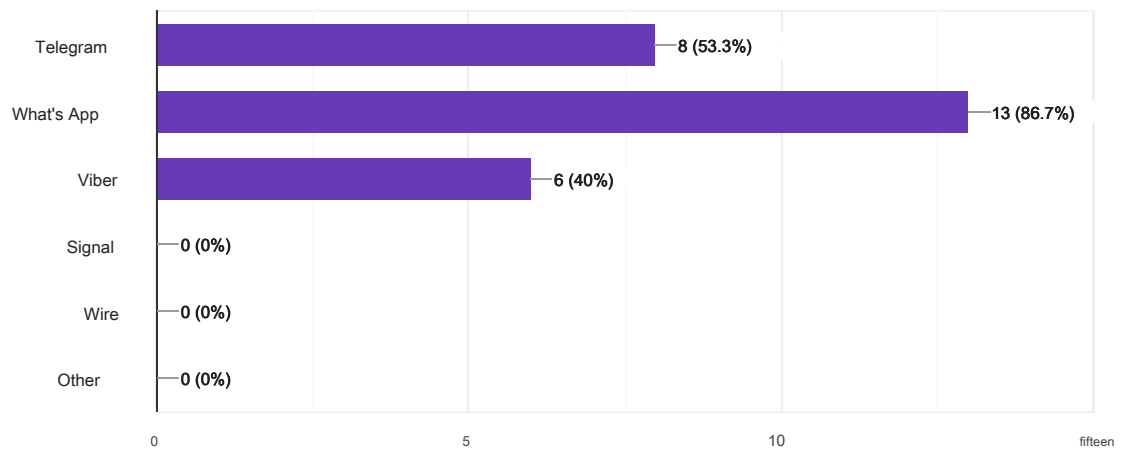

What social networks do you use most often and why?

15 answers

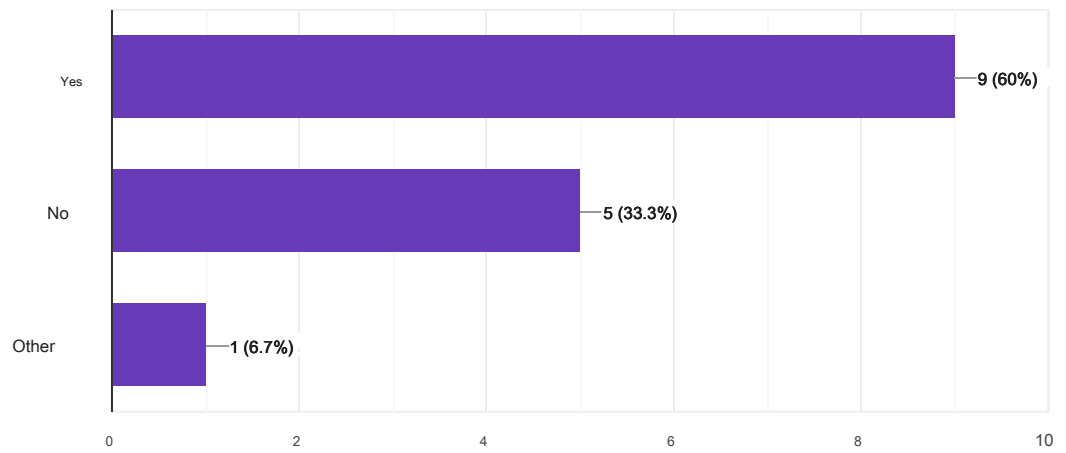

What messengers do you use most often and why?

15 answers

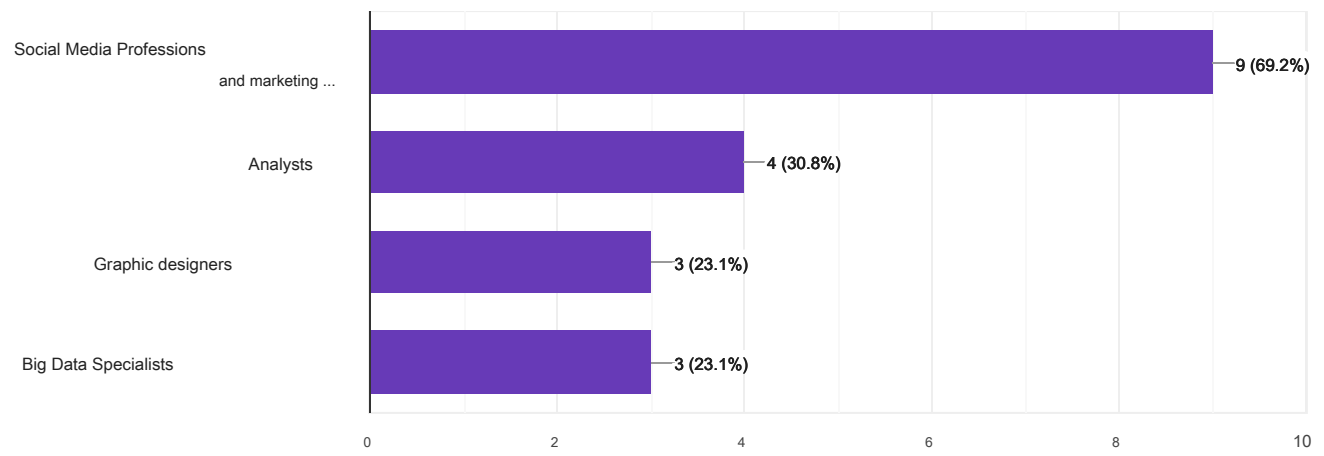

Do you think all young people have access to social networks these days?

15 answers

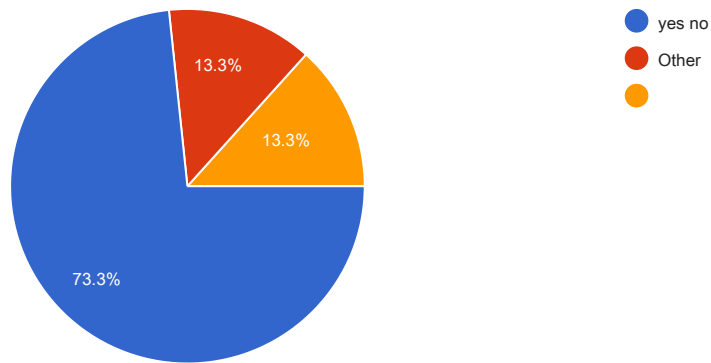

Do you think that your organization will create new types of professions and jobs for people in connection with the development of information and communication technologies?

13 answers

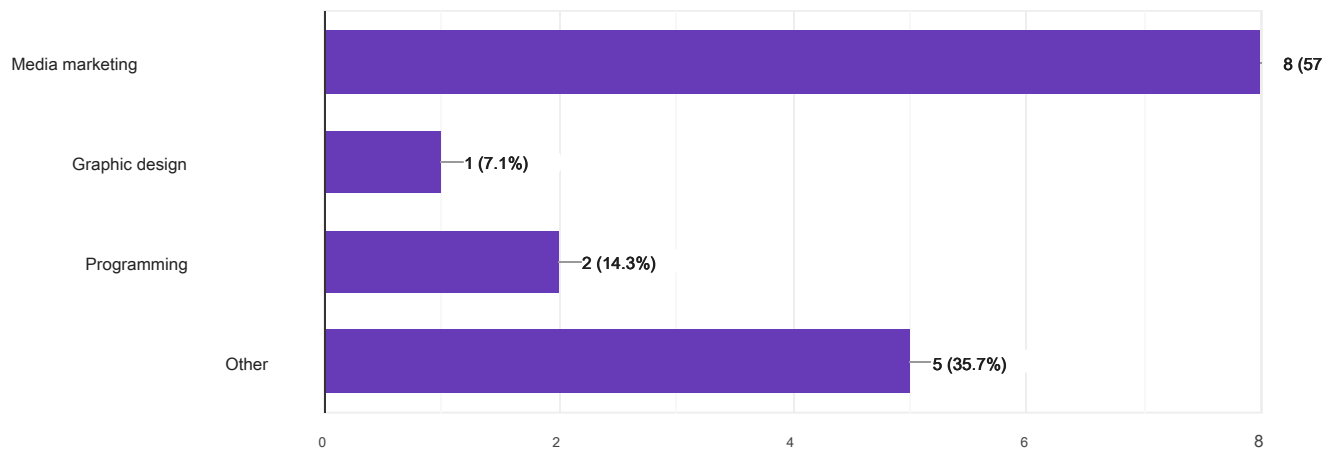

Does your management model include aspects of your team's well-being?

15 answers

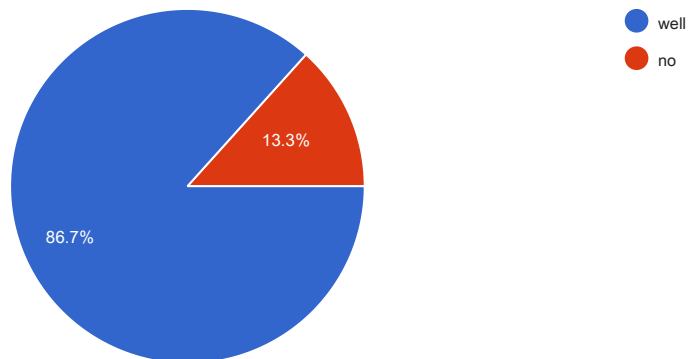

Does your institution provide staff training? If so, is there any training in information and communication technology?

14 answers

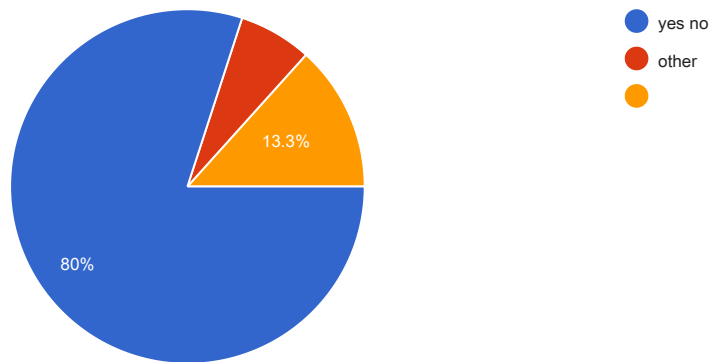

Does your institution have a platform / tool to share data in your organization?

15 answers

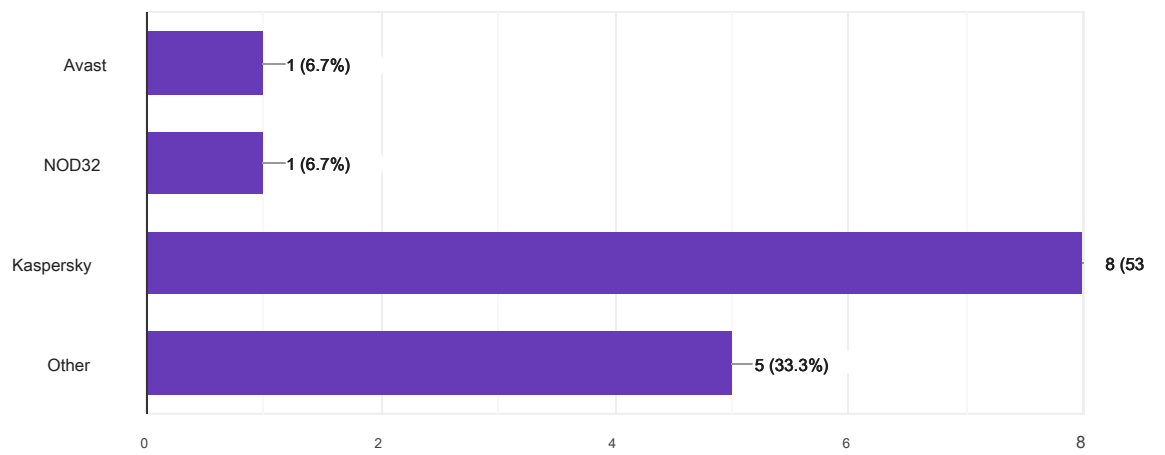

Do you check your database for errors and incomplete entries?

15 answers

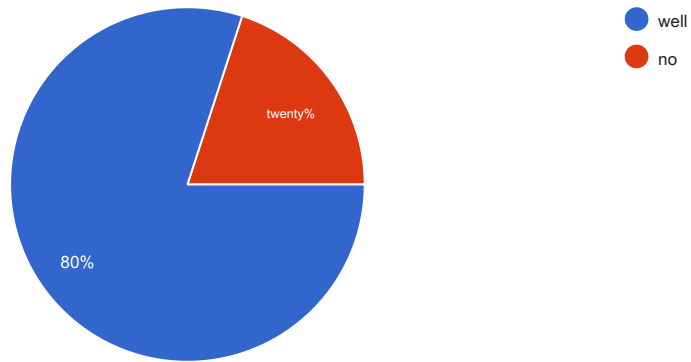

Do you have data protection software?

15 answers

Do you count on the productivity of your students?

15 answers

Do you use statistical analysis methods?

15 answers

